

Bruce W. Burtch, Inc.

Building partnerships that serve the greater good

Benefits for-profits receive from partnering with a nonprofit organization

Overall Company Benefits

- 1) Develop a motivating purpose for your company and employees
- 2) Enjoy a more cooperative company culture
- 3) Increase your organization's net revenue
- 4) Increase shareholder return
- 5) Increase return on investment
- 6) Benefit all your stakeholders
- 7) Lower your taxes through donations
- 8) Help in opening a new office or service area
- 9) Generate new ideas, insights and new ways of working
- 10) Find an outlet for donations of equipment you are replacing
- 11) Influence governmental regulators or legislature
- 12) Join local nonprofit boards for experience and increased community understanding
- 13) Have your leadership and organization recognized for the good they create in society
- 14) Connect your leadership and your organization to community thought leaders
- 15) Enhance awareness of important societal issues
- 16) Testing of governance principles
- 17) Making a difference in your community and your world
- 18) Enacting organization's Corporate Social Responsibility policies

Marketing

- 19) Increase sales of your products or services
- 20) Introduce a new product
- 21) Attract new customers
- 22) Increase customer and brand loyalty
- 23) Attract new business partners and relationships
- 24) Increase your market share
- 25) Reach new demographics, like Gen Y/Millennial's, Seniors
- 26) Improved customer satisfaction (in part due to mission-oriented employees)
- 27) Generate broader and deeper brand recognition
- 28) Increase your community goodwill
- 29) Draw media attention and coverage for free

Employees

- 30) Increase employee engagement and morale
- 31) Increase employee self-esteem
- 32) Cost reductions due to lower employee turnover
- 33) Increase employee skill development, especially teambuilding and leadership
- 34) Teaches the importance and need of serving others
- 35) Expand employee community volunteer participation
- 36) Enhances employee recruitment (cause orientation is particularly attractive to Gen Y)
- 37) Savings in employee training
- 38) Employees feel good about working for a company that is doing good.